2nd Annual Sale of White at the Parsons-Souders Stores

begins Monday, continues throughout January. In this sale which includes Muslin Underwear, the opening of new 1905 Cottons, important sale new Embroideries, annual sale of Linens, sale of Muslin Bed-clothes White Spreads, in fact everything white, the public has the opportunity of buying personal and household necessities for lower prices than it is possible to name at any other time.

To obtain these goods to sell so much below regular prices we contract with manufacturers months in advance, buying in large quantities, at lower prices owing to the largeness of our order. Twice the stocks and variety than last year, the great growth of the Parsons-Souders business demanded it. In the following we go into detail.

Under Muslins at Under Prices

Snowy Garments of Superior Merit

The woman who buys Muslin Underwear at the Parsons-Souders stores obtains full value for her money.

SEELY SAW A BARN

And Not a Crystal Palace With Wings As He Expected and He Ran Away From It.

The following concerning Col. Thomas R. Seely and his movements appears in the Pittsburg Hotel Reporter:

Colonel Tom Seely, proprietor of the Traders hotel, Clarksburg, W. Va., spent Christmas trying to break into the hotel game in this vicinity. "I received a flattering invitation," said Mr. Seely, "to visit one of your small neighbors a little way down the river with a view to purchasing a hotel. The place had been cracked up to be in the most glowing fashion and I expected to find a little palace with crystal wings. When I landed in front of it, I didn't know whether I was up against a tool dresser's boarding house or a lively stable. No, I didn't but I ran."

GREATEST OF SEASON

Was "The Strollers" at the Grand—Broke the Record in Point of Attendance—Very Fine Show.

Not since "The Twelve Temptations" some years ago has there been such an immense crowd at the playhouse here as "The Strollers" drew last night. The house had every seat filled and the aisles were crowded from end to end. There was no more standing room.

"The Strollers" is one of the greatest successes of the present season. The name of Nixon & Zimmerman attached to any production, is a guarantee as to its excellence. The company included such well known artists of opera fame as Miss Gene Linekin, Miss Maida Snyder, Miss May Bouton, Mr. Robert Lett, Mr. Dwight Allen, Mr. Joe Smith, Mr. George Rydacker, Mr. Henry J. Santa and others of equal standing in the profession. The production was identical with that used during the New York run at the Knickerbocker theatre of the opera. The chorus numbered over forty and the costume and scenery was both elaborate and up to the standard of all of Nixon & Zimmerman's productions.

As the fall of the season it was pronounced. Applause of great magnitude was given the actors and actresses and certain calls were frequent. The evening was one of such delight that "The Strollers" may come again and again this season. If it wants to, and we feel sure a return engagement would pay handsomely.

Will Be Here All Winter.

Prof. Howard Blake announces that he will be here all winter on Monday and Wednesday nights to teach dancing and that he will have regular classes here. It is true he has a class at Kingwood, but that only takes one night out of each week and he goes there for the benefit of that class every Thursday night. The report that he will not teach here this winter is absolutely untrue.

A Coat for Active Service

Big, long, warm and comfortable.

Physicians and other men whose work takes them out in the open in all sorts of wintry weather call our Stein-Bloch Smart extra long overcoat a blessing. It not only folds them in warmth, but gives them a distinction and style very seldom found in great outer coats. The fabrics are heavy Scotch cheviots and smart homespuns in plain and mixed patterns. One of the most useful winter coats ever designed.
